About Rotary International¹

Rotary International is the world's first service club founded in 1905 by businessman and attorney Paul Harris and three friends in Chicago. It was initially founded for fellowship and later evolved to serve their communities. They named their new club "Rotary" to describe the practice of meeting in rotation at the members' various places of business. After 1911 the Rotary expanded to Canada and gradually to the rest of the world. In 1928 the Rotary Foundation was established and it is today a major philanthropic organization.

The Rotary mission is to provide service to others, promote integrity, and advance world understanding, goodwill, and peace through fellowship of business, professional, and community leaders.

The current 35,000+ clubs work together to:

- Promote peace
- Fight disease
- Provide clean water, sanitation, and hygiene
- Save mothers and children
- Support education
- Grow local economies
